Matthew 5:13-16

Introduction:

I. Our relationship with Jesus makes us people of _____ . vv.13-16

A. There's a couple of things to feel really good about:

1. Jesus calls us the _____. v.13a
  - a) This is what we are.
    - 1) This primarily means that our influence _____ moral corruption.
    - 2) This probably means that we provide _____ to an otherwise bland and insipid culture.
    - 3) This possibly means that we are to demonstrate what it truly means to be fully _____ to God; trusting Him for all things.(Lev.2:13; Numbers 18:19; 2 Chron. 13:5)
2. Jesus calls us the _____. vv.14, 16
  - a) This is what we are.
    - 1) This primarily means that we do _____ for others whenever we can.

- 2) This probably also means that our example helps _____ God's character to those who don't know Him yet. v.15b

B. There's a couple of things, however, to be concerned about. vv.13b, 15

1. We should be concerned about somehow losing our _____. v.13b
  - a) We should be concerned because if this happens, we would be _____.
2. We should be concerned about somehow _____ our light. v.15a
